Tuesday, November 14th The House of Fashions

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

ON SATURDAY, NOV. 18th, MR. JOS. KRUSKAL, OF KRUSKAL, MALVIN CO., NEW YORK, WILL GIVE US A FUR OPENING.

Wednesday's papers will give you the details of this event—an opportunity to be had only once a year, to which most naturally want you to come—to buy, or, not to buy, COME.

We know Mr. Kruskal well, been doing most of our fur business with him for past ten years—we commend him to our people, what he tells you about furs is not only true, but expert advice; and, of course the store is back of every word, every transaction. Your money is a deposit only, to be refunded should you purchase not be perfectly satisfactory.

Savory Roasters

Thanksgiving is right at the door, and it behooves the ladies to get ready to roast that Thanksgiving Turkey. How much better and how tender and sweet you can make that turkey by roasting it in one of Parsons-Souders' Savoy Roasters. You can make the cheap cuts of meat tender and sweet with this roaster.

You had better call on China man and have one sent out. It will do the work without any attention, and then the Gurnsey Cooking and Baking Dishes for the cranberries and macaroni and cheese. Roasters from 50c to $2.50.

SOCIAL

Mrs. Blair Entertains.
Mrs. William A. Blair entertained a number of friends at a delightful 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday afternoon in her home on Oak street. The floral decorations were beautiful in every detail. The parlor was done in white and pink chrysanthemums and the library in yellow chrysanthemums. Palms and ferns were profusely scattered throughout the rooms. Pink roses were used as favors and the place cards were attractive hand-painted autumn scenes. Following the luncheon, the guests were interested in drawing Mother Goose pictures, which diversion was very much enjoyed by all.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Arthur B. Boggess, Mrs. Warren Lee Williams, Mrs. Norton L. Longabaugh, Mrs. Addison R. Timberlake, Mrs. Newell J. Hayman, Mrs. W. Guy Tetrick, Mrs. Marshall Cannon, Mrs. R. S. Ogden, Mrs. Lucy Davison, Mrs. W. Frank Stout, Mrs. S. H. White, Mrs. Lloyd P. Souders, Mrs. Raymond Maxwell, Mrs. Perry C. Williams, Mrs. Truman E. Gore, Mrs. Benjamin F. Robinson, Mrs. O. Dale King, Mrs. Harvey W. Harmer, Mrs. B. M. Stuart, Mrs. Edward G. Hay, Mrs. C. C. McCarty, Mrs. Frank Dennison, Mrs. Poelling, Mrs. Wilbur E. Hursey, Mrs. Langford, Mrs. W. B. Holden, of Salem; Mrs. W. B. Conoway, Mrs. J. Bernard Davis, Mrs. H. O. Garrison and Mrs. W. Ellis Nixon.

Priscilla Club.

The members of the Priscilla Club were delightfully entertained Monday afternoon by Mrs. Roy E. Peshak at her home on Bartlett street, Bridgeport.

The honor guest was Mrs. William H. Wilson, of Bordentown, N. J., who is visiting Mrs. Edmund F. Garrett. The afternoon was spent in fancy work. At 4 o'clock delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Peshak, who was assisted by Mrs. John L. Moore.

There were present Mrs. C. H. Warner, Mrs. M. E. Sandusky, Mrs. W. A. Batten, Mrs. S. S. Faris, Mrs. E. F. Garrett, Mrs. H. J. McGinnis, Misses Ella and Sophie Benedum, Miss Luby Eastham, Mrs. C. W. Johnson, Mrs. Swartz, of Pittsburg; Mrs. John L. Moore, Mrs. W. H. Wilson and Mrs. R. E. Peshak.

Coming Wedding.

Thursday evening, November 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dickson, of Fifth street, this city, the marriage of their daughter, Miss Jean Dickerson, and Mr. Ferdinand Hornor, of Clarksburg, will take place. The wedding will be a quiet home event. The Rev. W. M. Long, of Clarksburg, will perform the ceremony. The approaching marriage of this popular young couple will be learned with interest by their many friends.

MISERABLE DYSPEPTICS

All the world looks gloomy to the man with the upset stomach. He sees the world through smoked glasses and never tries to rub off the smoke. Cheer up, Mr. Dyspeptic, there's bright days ahead of you. Go to Wells & Haymaker Co. this very day and say I want a box of M-I-O-N-A tablets. Take them as directed and if the misery doesn't leave your stomach and bring a sunny smile to your gloomy countenance, go and get your 50 cents back. M-I-O-N-A Stomach Tablets will promptly end the distress of indigestion, will stop nervousness, dizziness, biliousness, sick headache and sleeplessness. Fifty cents buys a large box at Wells & Haymaker Co. and drug-gists everywhere.

Dance Wednesday Evening.

A card of announcement has been received by the Telegram from Prof. Clarence L. Gardner, director of the Hoffman Hall Dancing Academy, stating in effect that the advanced class of that institution will give one of its enjoyable dances Wednesday night in Hoffman Hall. The card bears only two words, "Don't forget," which is sufficient indication to all those interested in this popular school of dancing that the event is to be held as usual this week at the same time and place when and where all its patrons have spent many delightful evenings.

Surprise Pastor and Wife.

Forty members and friends of the Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Hammond tendered them a surprise party Monday night at the parsonage of the Adamston Methodist Episcopal church, of which he is pastor. Ere they knew that anyone contemplated a visit to the parsonage, a knock was heard at the door and on answering it they found the party confronting them. The visitors took possession of the house and for more than an hour all enjoyed themselves in a special way.

The Rev. and Mrs. Hammond are heartily thankful to all who gave them this very pleasant surprise party.

Mrs. Johnson Entertains.

Mrs. C. W. Johnson entertained a few friends informally Monday evening in honor of Mrs. J. H. Hurry, of Bridgeport, and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, of New Jersey. Games were enjoyed during the evening and refreshments were served. About thirty guests were present.

Invited to Card Party.

Mrs. A. W. Rapp has invited a number of friends to play cards in her home Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. Mrs. M. S. Jarvis, of New York, her sister, will be the honor guest.

Euchre Affair.

In Centennial Hall Thursday night from 8 to 11 o'clock the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will have a progressive euchre affair. The customary fee will be charged and dainty refreshments will be served. All friends are invited.

Entertains Card Club.

Mrs. Samuel Newman entertained at progressive euchre Monday night at two tables. Luncheon was served. Those present as her guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jay, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkie Cohen and Mr. and Mrs. William Ewaltz.
